

PRESS RELEASE

Solange Olszewska Among the 100 Most Influential Businesswomen in the World

Bolechowo, 01.08.2011

Solaris CEO Solange Olszewska is one of the 100 most influential businesswomen in the world, according to an analysis of successful women in business by German financial daily newspaper Handelsblatt. The paper does not suggest a ranking order within the Top 100.

Handelsblatt honours Olszewska's success with the Solaris brand, represented by the green dog, in winning tenders for the supply of buses to major European cities against strong competition from long-established competitors. With this, Solaris is judged to have its eyes firmly on the world market.

About our company

Solaris Bus & Coach sp. z o.o. is one of the leading producers of city and intercity buses in Europe. It focuses in particular on the development of zero-emission vehicles, i. e. electric and hydrogen buses as well as trolleybuses. This has resulted in the widest zero-emission product range in the European market and a leading position in this segment with a market share of 15.2%. Nearly 25,000 Solaris vehicles have been delivered so far and they ply the streets in 850 towns and cities across 33 countries located throughout Europe as well as beyond it. Solaris is part of the Spanish CAF Group (Construcciones y Auxiliar de Ferrocarriles) S.A. From conception, to the design and manufacturing phases, all Solaris buses are produced in Poland. Moreover, all activities undertaken by the manufacturer are in line with the brand's mission, which is reflected in the motto "We are changing the image of public transport". Solaris also actively partners with public transport operators and provides them with comprehensive support in their transition to zero-emission mobility.
